Executive Summary

Chicago Real Estate Resources, Inc. is an experienced, full-service real estate company offering a wide range of services including the management and disposition of distressed real estate assets. Our team is experienced with every asset class and provides a one-stop solution for lenders, developers, and property owners.

Eric Janssen, President of CRER, has been appointed receiver in the State and Federal courts of Illinois and Indiana since 1995 in approximately 1,700 cases involving retail, multi-family, office, industrial and hospitality assets valued well over $1.8 billion. CRER usually continues to manage the property, make improvements if needed, and finally sells the asset for the best possible price.

CRER is partnered with TCN Worldwide, a consortium of independent commercial real estate firms serving more than 200 markets. The national platform provides the opportunity for our brokers to directly market our assignments to a much larger audience which is very beneficial to our clients.

TCN Worldwide, provides complete integrated real estate solutions locally and internationally. An extensive range of real estate services coupled with a commitment to exceed expectations is what allows TCN to be a leader in this competitive industry. Comprised of leading independent brokerage firms, TCN combines an entrepreneurial approach with years of local experience. TCN's more than 1,500 brokers have a well-earned reputation for providing straightforward expert advice.

Property Management

At CRER, we understand the protection and disposition of real estate assets is of utmost importance during and after the foreclosure process. CRER is committed to providing exceptional service to our clients. We are currently managing numerous receivership and bank-owned real estate (OREO) properties that range in size from small multi-family apartment buildings to downtown high-rise properties

Receivership Services

As soon as the appointment of Receiver is entered, and upon taking over the property, some of the tasks that our firm will perform are:

- Determine occupancy and collect accurate tenant information by going door-to-door and speaking with each tenant
- Determine if there are any outstanding violations with the building department
- Secure vacant apartments and/or commercial suites
- Prepare and serve five-day notices and appear in eviction court as needed
- Assess the overall condition of the property and provide recommendations on how to protect the asset and make repairs in the most cost-effective manner
- Market and prepare vacant apartments for lease and renew existing tenants as their lease approaches expiration
- Actively list and market commercial spaces, increasing visibility through commercial-specific websites such as CoStar and LoopNet, and renegotiate commercial leases as required in order to increase property income potential
- Provide client with access to our secure website to view all financial and receiver reports 24/7

[Chicago Real Estate Resources, Inc.]

Trust, Probate Court & Bankruptcy

CRER has been appointed in the Circuit Court of Cook County to manage and sell real estate assets involved in probate court procedures. Additionally, we have been involved in leasing and sales transactions of properties held in trust by financial institutions.

CRER is frequently retained by bankruptcy trustees appointed in the United States Bankruptcy Court to manage and sell real estate assets involved in bankruptcy procedures. We also provide evaluations on real estate assets to determine if there is sufficient equity in the property(ies) involved in order to pay the creditors should the asset sell.

Real Estate Owned

Once an institution has taken possession of the real estate asset(s), CRER can continue to offer its management services and provide commercial/investment brokerage services to sell and/or lease the property. A precise forecast of final sale value is provided, along with a disposition strategy, following necessary due diligence.

Our experienced commercial real estate sales teams will work to ensure the asset is sold for the best possible price in the shortest amount of time with an end goal of decreasing or eliminating our clients' losses. Residential properties would be handled by our strategic partner Fulton Grace Realty.

Cost-To-Complete Analysis

We offer inclusive cost-to-complete analyses for incomplete projects or properties in need of maintenance or rehab. This service gives lenders or owners insight into existing conditions of an asset and a streamlined game plan to prepare a project ready for sale. Keeping the client's intentions and the project in mind, cost-to-complete analyses can be prepared to emulate various scenarios involving repositioning options.

We have provided cost estimates for a wide array of assets through many years of workout assignments. These analyses included site improvement, commercial build-out, and condo, single-family and multi-family completion. We know and understand our clients depend on our analysis to execute strategic decisions for their assets to avoid cost overruns. This is why we deliver accurate cost estimates so our clients can make the most fitting decisions for their assets.

Construction Management

Our real estate and construction teams' broad experience includes: single-family and multi-family construction and renovations, condo conversions, apartment maintenance, fractured condo projects, high-rise facade restoration and general commercial build-out. The construction process, including determining the extent of the project, reviewing bids, supervising quality of work and obtaining certificate of occupancy is overseen by our knowledgeable management team.

EXECUTIVE TEAM

CHICAGO REAL ESTATE RESOURCES, INC.

Eric Janssen - President

Eric Janssen was born and raised in the Netherlands and has a world of experience--literally. After college, Eric moved to Jakarta, Indonesia, before charting a course for Chicago to live out a new adventure. After a stint in the restaurant management industry, he ventured into the world of real estate, obtaining his broker's license in 1988. Eric quickly achieved a string of successes in management at three major real estate companies: Equity Office Management LLC, Berger Financial Services and Holsten Management Corp. During his tenure at Holsten, he started working with national financial institutions, assisting them with the management of foreclosed commercial properties. During this time, he also gained experience as a commercial real estate broker.

New challenges soon followed. In 1995, Eric joined a Chicago based real estate firm as vice president, eventually becoming senior vice president. Here, he assisted lenders with receivership services, management and the disposition of real estate-owned property. As a commercial broker, he continued help Chicago buyers, sellers and investors. Cementing his position in the area real estate industry were three top commercial sales awards he earned in 1999, 2001 and 2002 from the Chicago Association of Realtors. To date, he has sold more than $500 million in real estate assets.

While busy with a variety of projects, Eric founded Dutch Development Inc. in 1997. In addition to condo conversions, Dutch Development specializes in purchasing and rehabilitating apartment buildings and mixed-use properties. Thus far, they have renovated over 500 units in the Rogers Park, Lincoln Park and Lakeview Chicago neighborhoods. The company has been honored by the Chicago Association of Realtors with three "Good Neighbor Awards" for outstanding rehab and neighborhood development.

In April of 2004, Eric founded Chicago Real Estate Resources Inc. (CRER), a full service commercial real estate firm. Collectively, the CRER team has been involved in commercial sales & leasing transactions in excess of $2 billion. Eric has been appointed receiver in Illinois and Indiana in more than 1,700 foreclosure cases involving assets valued over $1.8 billion.

Mark Krzysztofiak - Vice President

Mark Krzysztofiak is in charge of general operations, property portfolios, construction projects, business planning and financial accountability. After working in the restaurant field for several years and graduating from the University of Illinois with a degree in economics, Mark moved into the real estate world and has been with CRER since early 2004.

Mark has worked in the administrative and accounting departments, as well as with property management. His duties include directing the property management staff on day-to-day operations, overseeing financial budgets and bills for property portfolios and direct involvement with human resources.

Mark has managed many construction projects ranging from apartment rehab to major multi-million dollar renovation projects. He has helped clients resolve building violations, lead hazards, high-rise façade restorations and unfinished construction projects, involving various property types ranging from single-unit condos to high-rise properties.

Andrew Werner - Portfolio Manager

Andrew Werner handles the day to day operations of a portfolio of properties. His responsibilities include budgeting, financial statements, tenant relations, maintenance and repair and any other items set forth in the management agreements.

After graduating from the University of Kansas with a focus in communications and business, Andrew found himself in the real estate profession by way of PSA Solutions Inc as an Asset Manager. Andrew learned the ins and outs of property management as well as property Receivership throughout the Chicago-land area.
