After studying business at Penn State University and University of Illinois at Chicago, Timothy spent five years in restaurant management where he honed his professional and people skills. Timothy always had a love for real estate and decided to pursue as a full time career. Timothy set his sights on commercial real estate. Seeking out niche-orientated opportunities within the industry, he joined with Eric Janssen, founding principle of Chicago Real Estate Resources. CRER has a unique market position in receivership services and is a boutique operation where Timothy felt that he had great growth potential.

Timothy's transactional experiences include multi-family, mixed-use, retail, fractured condo developments, industrial, commercial and land sales. He also oversees more complex deals such as REO auctions, note purchases, portfolio note purchases, and portfolio REO. This wide range of knowledge has made him an asset to many of his clients. Timothy prides himself on working on many challenging deals for his clients and seeing them through from start to finish.

Timothy participates in many charity causes, which includes having raised $275,000 through a college dance marathon for kids with cancer. He continues work on his mission of helping those in need by working closely with Chicago's Toys for Tots charity, hosting an annual Toy for Tots event for the past nine years.

Timothy's professional affiliations include the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC), The Chicago Association of Realtors (CAR), The Young Professional Network (YPN) and The West Central Association Chamber of Commerce (WCA).
